

Sociology Department 2022-23

Program Outcom-UG

This would help students to assess important, subject matter, scope and reason for a new science like Sociology. They would understand the difference and similarity between sociology and other sciences by having knowledge about society, community, association, culture, social change, socialization, social stratification, family, caste, religion, kinship, marriage, social structure & function in a scientific manner. The need of social change, evolution, development and progress of society would be made possible via this paper.

This programme / course helps the students to understand the structure of Indian society and need of change. Also, they can understand the problems and solution of villages, towns, cities, Rural-Urban-Tribal area, weaker section, Dalits & OBC, women-minorities groups. Material & Non-material culture, culture lag and hurdles of National Integration from social perspective. By doing so, they can identify the problems and solutions, suggest some new solutions to solve the problem after understanding the Government & non- government efforts.

This course helps the students to understand social change in the society. The knowledge of Nature factors, theories, process, types and agencies of social change and control would help students to be a social person and imbibe the process of socialization.

This course helps students to understand the social problems, issues and solutions by government & non-government organisation. They can understand the reality of caste class, religion and community. Which can further help them understand the structure. Familial, Developmental and dis-organisational issue and problems with possible solutions.

In this programme / course Students can benefit & learn sociological research methods and techniques in theoretical and practical manner. They understand the value of research in social phenomenon. They can evaluate the social problem in quantitative, qualitative, ethical and practical manner. Thus, enabling critical thinking and analysis concept in students.

Students can understand the thoughts, theories, life sketch of founders of sociology. They can trace the history of sociology, ideas of the pioneering sociology thinkers and understand the relevance of the Classical theory in Contemporary societies. They can understand the origin and development process of sociology as per the effort of thinkers. This paper develop critical thinking & sociological understanding.

Sociology Dept.
Raghunath Girls College
Meerut.