Through this MoU, the two institutions, namely, Raghunath Girls' Post Graduate College, Meerut (RGPG) & Kanohar Lal Snatakottar Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Meerut (KLSMM) shall seek to promote:

• Faculty Exchange for enhancement of Teaching – Learning Environment –

The exchange of faculty of both the institutions for the following

1. Collaboration in research and development, and consultancy studies in the field of mutual interest.
2. The exchange of academic materials and publications.
3. Conducting guest lectures,
4. Involvement of staff for purposes of curriculum development and review, upgrading of teaching and research skills,
5. Participating in seminars, symposiums, and other types of academic discussions,
6. Co-supervising students as per the demands of NEP.
7. Conducting study tours and joint consultancy work.

A specific plan will be worked out for each activity; setting for th detailed arrangements for collaboration will be agreed. Terms and conditions for each visitor an assignment or such exchange, including those concerning honorarium, travel funding and accommodation will be worked out between the institutes. A separate agreement will be entered into giving such details including term of exchange of any intellectual property.

• Student Exchange

RG PG, Meerut and KLSMM, Meerut agree that student exchange will be guided by principles listed below. A home institution refers to the institution where a student is a full-time student, and from where she is expected to graduate. A host institution refers to an institution that receives a student for a brief period of time to undertake a pre-determined programme of study or research.

- a) Exchange students will be selected by mutual agreement between the home institution and the host institution.
- b) An exchange student will continue to be treated as full-time student at his/her home institution.
- c) An exchange student will be considered as full-time "exchange" student at the host institution.
- d) His/her programme of study at the host institution will be determined by mutual consultation between his/her academic advisor at the home institution and his/her "interim" academic advisor identified by the host institution.
- e) The host institution will evaluate an exchange student's performance in each course or module, award a letter grade or marks, and issue a letter to that effect.
- f) The home institution may award to the exchange student credits earned at a host institution, but only after the home institution has established correspondence between courses taken at the host institution vis-à-vis those offered at the home institution.
- g) If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the host institution will evaluate the exchange student's performance in the research, and issue a letter to that effect, together with a technical "report" of the research carried out.

h) If an exchange student has undertaken research, then the home institution will take note of the performance evaluation and the technical report, and take steps in accordance with its own procedures.

i) The exchange students will pay tuition and other fees at their home institution.

• Learning Resources

- (i) to exchange information on research and academic programs,
- (ii) to exchange information on teaching, learning material and other literature relevant to their academic and research programs,
- (iii) to jointly organize short-term continuing education programs on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- (iv) to organize jointly seminars, conferences, or workshops on topics of mutual interest and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- (v) to propose and engage jointly in research or training programs, and to invite each other's faculty to participate therein,
- (vi) to exchange, on a reciprocal basis, infrastructural facilities at undergraduate, post graduate and doctoral levels for limited periods of time for the purpose of education, intellectual enrichment opportunities, skill development courses, sports, cultural activities and/or research,
- (vii) to use laboratory facilities in specific cases for a limited period,
- (viii) to permit students, staff and faculty members to use library facility.

RGPG & KLSMM agree that detailed terms and conditions that guide each activity identified above will be determined separately and agreed upon by the two institutions. These terms shall include a technical description of the proposed activity, financial arrangements, and person(s) responsible for its implementation.

COORDINATION

Each institution shall appoint one member of its teaching / research faculty to coordinate the programme on its behalf. Further, a coordination committee consisting of a programme coordinator from the side of RGPG, and a programme coordinator from the side of KLSMM, will periodically review and identify ways to strengthen cooperation between the two institutions.

VALIDITY

The Memorandum shall remain in force for a period of FIVE years commencing from effective date. Institutions may extend the term by written agreement signed by both after review.

TERMINATION

Either institution may terminate the MoU by giving written notice of THREE months in advance to the other institution. However, RGPG and KLSMM will ensure that the provisions of this Memorandum shall continue to apply to all activities in progress until their completion.

AMENDMENTS/MODIFICATIONS

This MoU may be amended or modified by a written agreement signed by the representatives of both institutes.

Subject: Appreciation for Exemplary MoU Collaboration.

Dear Madam,

I hope this letter finds you well. On behalf of Vardan Institute of Alternative Medicines and Healing Sciences, I am writing to extend our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for the remarkable MoU collaboration between our institutions. The partnership with Raghunath Girls' P.G. College, Meerut has significantly enriched the academic experiences of students and faculty. The recent seminar on Holistic Approach to Healing Therapies for Body and Mind exemplifies the high level of cooperation and mutual respect that our institutions share. We are particularly impressed with the hospitality and professionalism displayed by Department of Physical Education and sports, Raghunath Girls' P.G. College, Meerut. Your commitment to fostering a conducive environment for learning and exchange of ideas is truly commendable. The feedback from participants during skill course and visit our institution has been overwhelmingly positive, highlighting the enriching discussions and the warm welcome they received. This collaboration has not only strengthened the bonds between our institutions but also opened new avenues for future initiatives. We look forward to continuing this fruitful relationship and exploring more opportunities for academic exchanges that benefit both our communities.

Once again, thank you for your unwavering support and cooperation. Please convey our sincere appreciation to your Physical Education Department's Incharge, staff, and students who have contributed to making this collaboration a resounding success.

Yours sincerely,
